Dear Mr. Zamzam,

I am pleased to inform you that you have been awarded the Licentiate of the Royal Photographic Society. This now entitles you, whilst remaining a member, to use the letters LRPS after your name.

The Royal Photographic Society has been engaging people in photography for over 165 years and our purpose is to bring inspiration, creativity and connection through photography to people of all ages and backgrounds. We are dedicated to increasing the public knowledge and understanding by promoting the highest standards of photography. RPS Distinctions are internationally-recognised qualifications and we are delighted to congratulate you on this achievement.

Attached below are some guidelines and sample paragraphs which you may share with your local press.

You can share your successful portfolio on our RPS website and dedicated Distinctions Facebook group. For more information about duplicate or replacement certificates and badges, please visit: rps.org/qualifications/#DI.

I enclose your Certificate and badge.

Many congratulations on your success.

Yours sincerely,

Dear Amin,

Enclosed is your award for the 2016 PSA International PJ Projected Competition. I apologize for the delay in sending this out. The person who normally did the mailing dropped from PSA and I have been unable to find a replacement.

You were awarded two HMs for this Competition.

Congratulations and keep up the good work.

Sincerely,
